RACING AT WORTH.

Frequent light showers at Worth yesterday rendered the track a shade slow but not enough to favor mud horses. There was no stake race up for solution but despite this fact a crowd almost as large as that of the opening day was present and witnessed a fair day's sport. Form played an important part in the afternoon's sport the best horses showing well up in the various races. The second race was declared off and a new field substituted at the same distance. John Grigsby, with Coburn up, seemed to be thrown into this once around the circle but he found a tartar in Eva's Darling which outgamed him in the closing strides and won a rattling good race by a short nose. After the first quarter had been run Eva's Darling darted into the lead and held it by a fair advantage up to the last eighth post where Coburn brought up John Grigsby with a rush. Coburn tried every art and skill to get his mount's head in front in the closing strides but without avail. He had laid just a shade too far back with the horse, evidently thinking that the leader would come back to him. Do Madge finished third two lengths back. She has not started before in some time and the race should about put her on edge. Birch Tree was right there for six furlongs but died away fast when the pinch came. It was a messy field.

Orontas after many attempts finally found an easy spot winning the fifth race, a dash of one and one-eighth miles, rather easily by two lengths from Charley Moore, which beat Lady Elite for second place. The last named showed the way for the first seven furlongs where she tired and Charley Moore took the lead. He held it by a fair margin up to the last eighth, where Orontas was called upon and closed on him with a rush. The two ran lapped for a few strides when Orontas under persuasion moved gradually away and the result was never afterward in doubt. Lady Elite's effort was a good one, considering the fact she has not started in a long time. Old campaigner Admetus ran fourth failing to show any of his former speed. He has undoubtedly seen his best days. False Lead might just as well have remained in his stall.

It was reported around the track that Sevoy had been on the cars all night and was a little stiff, but despite this rumor he was made a decided favorite in the day's opener, a six and a half furlong dash. He rewarded the confidence placed in him by his many backers by winning the race in a big easy gallop. Aleo led for the first half mile, when Sevoy was called upon and in an instant he had dashed into the van, remaining there easily to the end. He won by three and a half lengths from Goal Runner, which beat Siren Song two for second place. Goal Runner improved suddenly from his poor showing at Harlem with seventy pounds up some few days before. Siren Song swerved badly in the stretch or she would have been much closer up at the finish. Irish Jewel ran far below his true form, as only several days before with nine pounds more up he won a cracking good race in 1:13½. Sim W. with ninety-three pounds up was never a contender. He is a bad horse at present.

Lacrimae, just from the east, won a lucky race when she beat Amiranthe a nose in the third, a scramble of six furlongs for two-year-olds. Landry put up a poor effort on the latter, getting her cut off at the first quarter and losing ground at the stretch turn by swinging wide. She came with a great rush at the end, but could not get up, losing by the shortest of margins. John A. Clarke was third a length back. He finished strongly next to the inside rail and altogether ran a good race. Marcos showed the way to the turn for home, where he was done and dropped back beaten. Santa Teresa ran below expectation.

Hermencia proved to be the best in the mile and a sixteenth dash, winning in a hard drive by a half length from W. B. Gates, which swerved somewhat in the closing strides. The winner came fast in the last eighth under punishment and swerved from the center of the track to the inside rail. W. B. Gates beat Brownie Anderson seven lengths for second place. The latter was well up for seven furlongs and then began to tire rapidly. Canova showed speed early, but quit when a furlong out. Zack Phelps showed early speed. He runs best in the mud.

Little Elkin took the last race of the day in a hot tilt with Crosby in the last sixteenth. The former, after lying far out of it for six furlongs, moved up fast and despite Coburn's strong ride on Crosby nailed him by a nose on the post. Moroni was third, six lengths back. Miss Dooley ran well for six furlongs. Old Mike showed early speed.

Crosby's entry will be refused in future by the Worth judges because of his bad acting at the post.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Peter Weber's system of training runners is being adopted by a large number of trainers. Walter Mahen, of Los Angeles, is the last one to work his horses on this plan, which is driving them to a cart instead of having them ridden by an exercise boy. Mr. Weber claims that working colts to cart makes them better mannered, gives them better mouths and saves their legs, as they do not have to carry weight. Nervous horses are often greatly improved by the driving system.

It was made public recently, through weights and entries of Morris Park Stakes, that Blues was not sold outright by Julius Fleischmann. When the Mayor let the better part of his stable go last summer, Frank Farrell bought some of the stars. Blues was among his purchases. Whether Mr. Fleischmann bought back an interest in Blues is not known, but it has developed that Frank Farrell has only an interest, though the managing interest, in the horse.

The Matron Stakes footed up considerably more than its guaranteed value of $20,000, aggregating $24,495. Of this the winner's share was $17,747.50, while the second horse won $4,248.50 and the third horse $2,499. Thus this great stake was made up wholly of money contributed by owners and cost the association nothing. However, this condition will not prevail in the future as $10,000 is to be added to the Matron Stakes in future closings.

When Clarence H. Mackay purchased Heno from J. E. Madden the price was not made public. Tuesday it was said on good authority that Mr. Mackay paid $32,500 for the colt, and as Heno's share of the Matron Stakes was $17,747.50, the investment can be regarded as being based upon good judgment.

Sam Doggett, the well known jockey, has returned from Austria and was at Morris Park Wednesday. He says that Fred Taral, who has had great success in that country, will return to America next month, but will go back to Austria next year for another campaign.

Catesby Woodford, Raceland Stud, Paris, Ky., has had the misfortune to lose the bay suckling colt by Sir Dixon—Elopement, by Hindoo, therefore a half brother to Alcedo. He died from inflammation of the bowels a few days ago.

While at the post for the Matron Stakes Burns was set down for two days for breaking through the barrier and O'Connor was fined $50 for misbehavior. In the last race Martin was also set down for two days for disorder.

After the last race at Morris Park on Tuesday J. Tabor put in a claim for C. F. Dwyer's Ethics, entered to be sold for $500. Wednesday Tabor returned Ethics to Dwyer for $800 after having turned down an offer of $3,500 for the colt.

Dayton and Hueston, the steeplechase jockeys, have been suspended and their cases referred to the National Hunt and Steeplechase Association.

E. Corrigan has claimed with the Messrs. Weatherby & Sons the name Lute for the two-year-old bay filly by Watercross—Lucille Murphy.

Martin Doyle, of Paris, Ky., has sold to H. K. Knapp, of New York, a yearling colt, by Sir Walter—Maladay, by Rossington, for $800.

Subscriber, Chicago. A is only entitled to his money back. With Vulcain scratched his bet was a draw.

G. A. H., Chicago. You do not win on the entry and your wager was lost.

A. J. C., Chicago. Your wager on Saintly was a loser.

CALIFORNIA JOCKEY CLUB STAKES.

In this issue the California Jockey Club advertises its second list of stakes, which will close for entries at midnight of Monday, November 4. These stakes are all to be run after January 1, 1902, the list to be run prior to that date having closed October 5. Most important of the present list is the noted Burns Handicap, the star event of the California racing season. It is of the guaranteed value of $10,000 and in that respect, as well as in its distance of a mile and a quarter, is equal to the Suburban and the Brooklyn handicaps and a prize worthy of any turfman's desire. DAILY RACING FORM earnestly commends these valuable stakes to the consideration of all turfmen who are contemplating a winter campaign over the finely appointed tracks governed by the California Jockey Club. Winter racing in California is the equivalent of summer racing in the east and is generously supported by the cosmopolitan and sport-loving people of San Francisco, in many respects the most delightful city in the United States in which to pass a few pleasant months. The stakes here offered are as follows:

The Burns Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, $10,000; 1 1-4 miles.

The Thornton Stakes, 3-year-olds and upward, $3,000; 4 miles.

The California Derby, 3-year-olds, $3,000; 1 1-4 miles.

The California Oaks, 3-year-old fillies, $2,500; 1 1-8 miles.

The Waterhouse Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, $2,500; 2 miles.

The Palace Hotel Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, $2,000; 1 1-8 miles.

The Bell Stakes, 2-year-olds, $2,000; 5 furlongs.

The Pacific-Union Handicap, 3-year-olds, $2,000; 1 1-16 mile.

The Adam Andrew Selling Stakes, 3-year-olds and upward, $1,500; 1 1-16 miles.

The Lissak Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, $1,500; 1 mile.

The McLaughlin Selling Stakes, 3-year-olds and upward, $1,500; 1 1-8 miles.

The Naglee Selling Stakes, 4-year-olds and upward, $1,500; 6 1-2 furlongs.

The Gunst Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, $1,500; 1 mile.

The Follansbee High-Weight Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, $1,500; 7 furlongs.

The Gebhard Handicap, 2-year-olds, $2,000; Futurity Course.

ENGLISH AND AMERICAN HORSES.

The well-known contributor to the columns of the London Sportsman, Vigilant, makes a few words spoken to an interviewer, by Mr. Foxhall Keene the text of a learned discourse on breeding. Americans freely acknowledge their indebtedness to England. If we had not imported the best blood of that country our progress would have been slow indeed. The fact that we are sending horses across the Atlantic to run successfully in the great events of the British turf, shows that we have used imported strains to advantage. Judgment in mating, combined with good climate and care in rearing, is the secret of success in breeding in America as well as in Australia and England. Those who saw David Garrick race here will not concede that he is a better horse than Iroquois was; and Ben Holladay is not the greatest thoroughbred that we have produced. The views of the London Sportsman critic are not free from prejudice, and we make room for them in order that our readers may see the trend of English thought:

American trainers and American jockeys have done well and taught us a good deal, but American-bred horses have certainly not beaten our record up to now. The best that we have seen of late years, Disguise II. and Cap and Bells II., are out of mares imported from England, but you would not mention either as in the same category with a Flying Fox or a Persimmon. Then, taking the Americans generally, though they outnumber the Australian importations to this country by at least thirty to one, what results of theirs can we pretend to compare with those achieved by Merman, Maluma, Newhaven, Georgic, The Graftor, Australian Star, etc.? There have been a lot of very useful American horses, but none like the Australians mentioned above. It would be idle for any American to pretend they have bred for many years past a horse to compare with Merman. Ben Holladay was, perhaps, the nearest approach to it, and, curiously enough, he also at one time was bought by Mrs. Langtry, but was most unfortunately cast by the Vet., and the bargain did not go through. But Ben Holladay did not, like Merman, go on improving up to eight years old and then quit the turf at the very top of his form. Merman, when he beat Perth II. for the Ascot Club last year in record time, was probably at least twenty-eight pounds better than when he won the Cesarewitch, and where, for that matter, will you find the American horse that has run in three Cesarewitches, won Goodwood, Jockey Club and Ascot Cups and generally slaughtered opposition when it came to dingdong business over a distance of ground. Give me good old Merman against all the American horses that ever were bred; and as for Aurum—well, I have never ceased to regret that he was not able to run in this country. His trainer, W. T. Robinson, got to know enough about him to say, as he did to me, "Aurum is worth all the Australian and other horses put together." But, after all, so long as Mr. Foxhall Keene recognizes that he cannot hope to beat us except by breeding from imported stock there is no need to take exception to his imaginary remarks. It is a solid fact that were the English government to prohibit the exportation of bloodstock, no other nation in the world would have a decent racehorse after about fifty years, and from that time onward the position would grow worse and worse, each sort degenerating according to the tendency of its country.

It may be urged that David Garrick and Kilmarnock have done good work this season in Winner—Ch. g. by St. Saviour—Kassie.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Sevoy was thrown into an easy spot, assuming command after the first half had been run and winning as his rider pleased. Goal Runner ran in much improved form, finishing strongly. Siren Song swerved badly in the stretch. She showed quite a turn of speed. Irish Jewel ran far below his good showing of October 5. Alea had enough after five furlongs had been run. Sim W. was never a contender.

Scratched—28733 Boomerack, 98; 22989 Fleetwing, 90; 28697 Tom Kingsley, 103.
Corrected weights—Siren Song, 93.

Winner—B. f. by Bolero—Eva's K.
Went to post at 2:40. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Eva's Darling ran a surprisingly good race. She went into the lead soon after the first quarter had been run and remained there to the end. John Grigsby closed up fast on her in the last sixteenth but he hung just a shade in the closing strides. Coburn appeared to have too much confidence that she would quit and come back to John Grigsby in the last quarter. Do Madge finished strongly. The race should do her much good. Birch Tree ran well for six furlongs. Little Jack Horn showed early speed.

Overweights—Birch Tree, 4 pounds; John Grigsby, 3; Yoloco, 1.

Kva's Darling, show, 3 to 1. John Grigsby, show, out. Do Madge, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. f. by Rossington—Semper Idem.
Went to post at 3:05. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Lacrimae, always well up, came stoutly in the last sixteenth but had to be driven out to stall off Amirante's bold bid at the end. The latter was cut off at the first quarter and was the victim of a generally bad ride. Landry swung wide with her at the head of the stretch and made his run entirely too late. John A. Clarke came with a rush next to the inside rail in the last eighth but too late to be of any avail. Marcos showed speed for five furlongs but quit badly when the pinch came. Amote tired in the last sixteenth. Santa Teresa ran an indifferent race.

Scratched—28737 Pyrrho, 105.

Overweights—Amote, 1 pound.

Lacrimae, show, 2 to 5. Amirante, show, 9 to 20. John A. Clarke, show, 6 to 5. Santa Teresa, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. g. by Hermene—Grecia.
Went to post at 3:30. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Hermene came fast in the center of the track in the last eighth and then swerved under punishment to the inside rail. W. B. Gates, under a vigorous ride, closed ground while going down the stretch, but was out to the last ounce in the closing strides and was swerving toward the outside rail. Brownie Anderson ran well for seven furlongs. El Ghor ran far below expectation. Canova was right there until a furlong out, where he tired and quit. Zack Phelps showed well for a little over six furlongs. He runs best in mud.

Hermene, show, 7 to 10. W. B. Gates, show, 3 to 5. Brownie Anderson, show, 6 to 5. El Ghor, show, 7 to 10. Canova, show, 9 to 10.

Winner—B. c. by Azra—Starlight.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Orontas moved up fast when called upon in the last eighth and after a slight brush with Charley Moore came away easily. The latter put up one of his best races, but had no chance to beat the winner. Lady Elite showed well considering the fact that she had not started in many weeks. Admetus was never a contender and is probably stale. False Lead might just as well have remained in his stall.

Overweights—Lady Elite, 2 pounds; False Lead, 1.

Orontas, show, 1 to 6. Charley Moore, show, 2 to 5. Lady Elite, show, 3 to 2.

Winner—Ch. g. by Lamplighter—Emma Pickwick.
Went to post at 4:30. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Little Elkin showed much speed when coming down the last eighth, and despite Coburn's desperate efforts on Crosby got his nose in front when passing over the line. Crosby appeared to be an easy winner in the last sixteenth, but tired badly in the last few yards. Moroni tired rapidly in the last eighth after running well for six furlongs. Miss Dooley showed speed for three-quarters, but tired fast in the last eighth. Adelante was never a contender, running far below the good form shown in his last two efforts. Old Mike showed early speed.

Scratched—28319 Muskalonge, 106.

Little Elkin, show, 3 to 2. Crosby, show, 7 to 10. Moroni, show, 4 to 1. Adelante, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. f. by The Chevalier—Florine.
Went to post at 2:10. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Orleans came to life with a thump that shook the stands, ran a good race and won easily. Miss Golightly was cut off at the stretch turn, but could scarcely have done better. Militant ran well, but probably was just a bit short. The Bronze Demon can do better. Spinel is not near his form, but ran an improved race.

Scratched—28689 Peaches, 97.

Winner—Ch. c. by Wagner—Marchma.
Went to post at 2:45. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Louis Wagner showed unusual early speed, was well ridden and finished gamely. Terra Firma began slowly, was cut off at the three-eighths post and lost a lot of ground but he came on strong in the stretch and was well handled. Concertina was badly handled. She was probably best but was bumped and interfered with at every stride. Marque was the victim of a very bad ride. Crimean, away badly, made up a lot of ground and with an even break would have been right there. Anna Elliott can do better.

Scratched—28744 Potheen, 110; 28386 Mada Bell, 107; 28166 Marie Tryon, 100; 28707 Fantina, 100.

Winner—B. f. by Kehama—Fidgetty.
Went to post at 2:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Kufa, cleverly waited with, had a little more left than Miss Mitchell, which went to the front too early. It was a two horse race. Ferocious ran in improved form and has done well in practice. The others are very bad steeplechasers.
Scratched—Catchfly, 148; 27201 McGraithiana Prince, 142; 20041 Clasher, 135.
Overweights—Miss Mitchell, 1 pound.

Winner—B. c. by Hastings—Tarantella.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Pentecost waited under a pull behind the pacemakers and flashed past them with ease in the stretch. Grall closed up in the first half with a tremendous burst of speed, finished gamely and was a startlingly improved filly today. Igniter, in spite of having set a terrific pace, finished resolutely and will improve. Lady Godiva, badly handled, was shut off at the half and was going strongly at the end. She favors a route. Lord Quex came with a great rush at the end. Andy Williams went fairly well. Ben Howard quit. Highlander was mud evidently.
Scratched—28348 Sister Juliet, 108; 28226 Electress, 92.
Overweights—Lord Quex, 2 pounds; Highlander, 2.
Pentecost, show, 1 to 3. Grall, show, 2 to 1. Igniter, show, evens.

Winner—Ch. f. by Order—Alfalfa.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Smoke was best at the distance, was cleverly handled and nursed throughout, but is far from being in her best form. Potente does not show to the best advantage over a sprinting distance. He was hustled off his stride early and hung at the end. Rowdy ran fast and gamely and should win soon. In Shot and Shoreham were outclassed but ran well, especially the former.
Scratched—28738 Redpath, 108; 28740 Paul Clifford, 105; 28791 Ashes, 105; 28738 Oread, 92; 28743 Annie Thompson, 87; 28721 Connie, 84.

Winner—Ch. c. by Clifford—La Tosca.
Went to post at 3:30. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Caughnawaga was put to his utmost to win this race and his showing was far below his best form. He wants a vigorous strong rider and a route. Blanket was in hand to the last sixteenth and failed to respond when called on. Early Eve easily showed the way, but her bad month made her swerve under punishment. Grand Opera will give good account of himself over a distance of ground and showed great improvement in this race. Bon Mot was prominent to the last sixteenth. Joy Maker was closing up at the end. Watch Calgary, he is a grand looker and ran all over the track.
Scratched—28651 King Edward, 110.
Caughnawaga, show, 1 to 3. Blanket, show, 1 to 10. Early Eve, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Sir Dixon—Vassar.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Collegian, a very slow beginner, is a rater and a four-mile route would probably suit him to perfection. He was lucky to win and but for Tour bolting at the eighth post and carrying Miss Almy out with him he could not have been better than third. Miss Almy and Tour lost three lengths. The first-named had to pull up almost to a walk and was easily best. Philma Paxton ran in remarkably improved form and likes a heavy track. Anna Darling showed a lot of speed and then quit.
Scratched—27309 Wool Gatherer, 112; 28724 Rivenoak, 112.
Collegian, show, out. Tour, show, 1 to 3. Miss Almy, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Hanover—Retrieve.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Hernando waited to the last furlong before he was called on and then won out in brilliant style, but was probably lucky to score over Dublin. The latter was pulled up at the start and then carried wide on the outside of five horses on the first turn, which is very sharp. He will probably reverse this running. Decanter finished with a tremendous rush after meeting interference in the first half and being compelled to run around the field on the far turn. Black Dick was a good horse in this race, but somewhat outclassed. The Rhymer can do better and was probably short. Kamara is palpably out of form.
Scratched—28671 Advance Guard, 126; 28272 Carbuncle, 108.
Hernando, show, evens. Dublin, show, 2 to 5. Decanter, show, 2 to 5.

ENGLISH AND AMERICAN HORSES.

the interests of the American-bred racehorse, and within certain limits that is true enough. Mr. Lorillard told me that David Garrick was the best horse—Iroquois not excepted—that he had ever sent over to this country, or indeed ever owned, and the son of Hanover did unquestionably put in a good performance when he won the Chester Cup; but when it came to meeting Merry Gal at Epsom he could never extend her, and then his failure to come up to the scratch at Ascot proved him to be no Merman, while Kilmarnock will have to accomplish a lot more than he has hitherto done before taking rank with Mr. Jersey's old champion. There is no race easier to win than the Alexandra Plate when a horse is fit and can act on hard ground, but the Ascot Cup last year afforded a fair hammer-and-tongs trial over the Cup course against the best French form. Merman fairly reveled in that race, and though he, as usual, was barefoot when he came victoriously through that tremendous gallop, he was in the paddock next afternoon, without any semblance of soreness, ready to go out for the Alexandra Plate if they would only let him, which, owing to the supposed informality of his entry, they would not. Kilmarnock this year ran in both races, but his Cup effort was a very different affair, consisting as it did of a mere exercise gallop for the first mile of the distance. There is no question that Merman improved each year and right up to the time when he was retired, nor is there any reason to suppose that we had even seen the best of him. It was the same with Maluma, which was of the same age, eight years, and I have her trainer's authority for stating that she was better last season than she had ever been before while in his charge. The older school of American horses were better stayers than the present, simply because long distance racing is no longer encouraged in the States, but good as Foxhall no doubt was when he won our Cesarewitch and Cambridgehire, he did not train on and it needed no wonder to beat him next year at Ascot, nor did Iroquois retain his form after his three-year-old season.—Turf, Field and Farm.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

J. H. Woodford passed through Cincinnati last week and while there said in the course of an interview:
"Marcus Cartwright is, I believe, the most successful bookmaker west of the Alleghenies today, if not of the whole country. And he has been successful for twenty years. He is the only bookmaker who has been in the business for twenty years, and has made and saved a fortune of at least a million dollars. Mr. Cartwright the other day, in a long conversation with me, explained some of the methods that have resulted in his unprecedented success. Said he: 'I never in my life asked an owner for his opinion as to the chances of his horse winning. I don't want to know the opinions of owners or anybody else. I never had but one man employed to secure information for me. The single exception is this man Hugh McCullough, who has been with me for years. He is a good man and a deserving man, and I have kept him with me accordingly. But I never act on his information. My important rule in bookmaking is to take the bets on the horses that are the hot favorites, especially when the prices on them were being forced down precipitately just before the race by the multitude.'"
"The racing at Chicago right now is very good, indeed, viewed from almost any angle of the game. The attendance is great, and I think the horses, as a rule, are better than have been contenders at fall meetings there for years. Pink Coat starts in the Twentieth Century Handicap next Wednesday and, I think, has a fighting chance to win, as the track record had to be broken the other day to beat him. I think that I shall take Pink Coat back to the farm Wednesday, win or lose, and certainly should he win. While he has been in quite a number of races this year he has not been abused, but certainly deserves a good rest and the best of treatment this winter. Pink Coat is only six years old, and I see no reason why, with careful attention and preparation, he should, not be as good as ever on the turf next year."
Because the track was heavy Pink Coat did not start for the Twentieth Century, but it is pleasing to know that the gallant old winner of the '98 American Derby and of last year's Wheeler Handicap will race in Chicago again next year.
